Hello DXers:

Hope you are having a good week and resting up for the "battle" for Scarborough. The following News Release came in this evening and I wanted to send it along right away.

PLEASE NOTE THE CHANGE IN THE WEB SITE ADDRESS.

BS7H NEWS RELEASE #5

At 0240Z 27 April the team was located approximately 240 nautical miles north west of Scarborough Reef and making less than the expected progress because of extremely rough seas. The sea has been rough since departure from Hong Kong and the team is staying as quiet and still as possible in an effort to reduce exhaustion.

Current estimated arrival to BS7 is their Sunday morning local time.

Because of rough seas, there has been NO MARITIME MOBILE operation.
