DXCC NEWS (2013 Pending Applications).

Bill Moore, NC1L, ARRL Awards Branch Manager, reports: "Each year at this time DXCC is busy finishing up applications from the previous year. I have been getting questions from hams asking about applications that were sent for 2013.

Until DXCC completes applications for the 2012 calendar year, we cannot begin processing applications for 2013. Applicants can still submit their applications, but they need to be held pending completion of 2012.

Normally, completion of the previous year happens on or by March 1 so please use this date as a guide as to when DXCC begins processing the 2013 applications. Note: This applies to all Digital and LoTW applications as well as for paper cards submissions.

Send questions to bmoore@arrl.org
73 es DX!"

TX5K - Clipperton - 5.02.13 (Update)

"Nearly all the equipment has been assembled, and most has been packed. Transportation will be by truck on February 12th. The boat (Shogun, San Diego) will be loaded on Friday, February 15th.

We have implemented a new domain for the expedition: <www.TX5K.org>. We have also implemented a BLOG <<http://ky6r.com>> (link is also on the TX5K homepage) where you can read and enter comments.

We have completed development and emplacing of DXA (version 2). It can be accessed by the link on the TX5K home page, or directly at <www.dxa2.org>. Until the DXpedition goes QRV, the display will be a simulation. Comments on the blog before, during, or after, are most welcome.

The webmaster during the DXpedition will be Rich, KY6R. Please send any news stories or other interesting information to him for possible sharing on the blog or general publicity."
